Replace the D&D 5e character sheet starting with the main tab alternate layout (including areas to display frequently used items, spells, etc.). I don't like standard character plates with a lot of information stuffed into the first page. I don't need to look at my personality traits and other background information right away all the time (as well as talent and candid language). I want the homepage to rearrange, so there is more space for details about the attack (there is enough space to put details about the spell/attack ability, for example, without running out of space). So a long request can anyone associate me with a character sheet with more breathing room and not try to pack much on each sheet? Page 2 Inside you will find interviews, features and cartoons that cover everything that the App Store's Google Play Web D&D covers.
